

GERMANS ADVANCE BEYOND DOUAUMONT

"PEACE TERMS MUST CONSERVE INTERESTS OF ALL"—WILSON

PAY DEARLY TO REGAIN POSITION

Paris, May 25.—Inspection made by military authorities of maps of the Verdun region shows that within the last month German gains on the west bank of the Meuse from Cumières to Avocourt average a depth of 300 metres, approximately a fifth of a mile. The line eastward from the river is substantially the same as it was a month ago.

London, May 25.—The German war office today announced the capture of French trenches southwest and south of Fort Douaumont, indicating an advance beyond the line marked by the battered fortifications.

The recapture of the Haumont quarry west of Fort Douaumont is also announced by Berlin. The French only concede that a footing in a trench to the north of the quarry has been secured by the Germans.

In the Gaillette wood southwest of Fort Douaumont, General Nivelle's forces have been attacking repeatedly, but according to the German account they have gained no ground and have lost heavily. The Germans in addition capturing more than 850 men and 14 machine guns.

The artillery is still notably active. Its fire has been particularly severe on the west bank of the Meuse near Hill 304 and from Hill 304 to Cumières. The German account says the French have been driven back to the river just east of the Germans and that they have so far been prevented from debouching by the energetic work of the French guns.

East of Cumières the French report they have made some progress in hand grenade operations. Later reports from the front indicate that the Austrians have driven a wedge deeply into French territory between the Argonne and the Meuse. The Austrians have been falling back in this sector where they now occupy a considerable portion of their forces in the Argonne basin.

PARIS ADMITS LOSS OF FORT
Paris, May 25.—The Germans have recaptured Fort Douaumont while the French hold the immediate approach to that position. This announcement is made in the official statement issued by the German war office.

Firm Furnishes Chairs To Striking Pickets

Fort Wayne, Ind., May 25.—Officials of the Western Gas Construction Co., where a strike of machinists is in progress, furnished chairs for the union workmen who are picketing the plant. When the company started the practice yesterday, it was said to have been the first time in the history of labor troubles that such an action was ever taken.

100,000 TO MARCH IN THIS PARADE

Boston, May 25.—Indications that nearly 100,000 persons would march in a preparedness parade to be held here on Saturday, multiplied with every mail today. Women will appear prominently in ranks.

IT HAILED IN COLUMBUS

Columbus, O., May 25.—Hail stones measuring an inch in diameter fell during a severe electrical storm here this morning.

CHILD PUSHED UNDER A DRAV BY PLAYMATES

Tiffin, O., May 25.—Blanche Birch, 8, is in a critical condition. While playing near Minerva school, her playmates accidentally pushed her under a heavily loaded dray. Her right foot and knee were crushed and she was injured internally.

WANT TRAFFIC CONGESTION RELIEVED
Washington, D. C., May 25.—The interstate commerce commission was asked today by the Baltimore Chamber of Commerce to take full charge of the freight embargoes declared by railroads at Baltimore as a result of traffic congestion. The chamber alleges discrimination in the method of handling wheat.

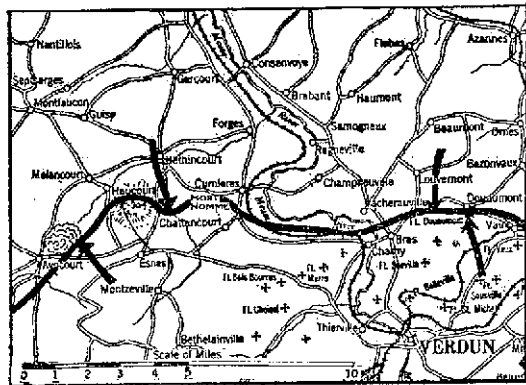

London, May 25.—The British steamship Washington, of 5,000 tons gross, has been sunk by a submarine according to an announcement made today at Lloyd's Shipping Agency.

NAVAL PROGRAM WHOLLY INADEQUATE SAYS MINORITY REPORT TO THE HOUSE

Washington, D. C., May 25.—Republican members of the house naval committee in a minority report submitted to the house today denounced the $241,000,000 naval appropriation bill reported by the majority as wholly inadequate and urged more liberal allowances to make the United States navy second greatest in the world.

The minority charged that the majority report ignored opinions of naval experts and recommendations of Secretary Daniels, and was based on a compromise between interests which wanted no additional naval protection

WHERE TIDE OF VERDUN BATTLE EBBS AND FLOWS

The accompanying map of the immediate neighborhood of Verdun shows the region in which some of the most furious fighting of the war is going on. The arrows show the direction of the attacks, both French and German. By a counter offensive which assumed the proportions of a general drive the French forced their way into Fort Douaumont, long held by the Germans. The Germans in turn after a bloody struggle recaptured the fort.

DANCES, CARDS AND THEATRES STILL UNDER BAN WITH METHODISTS

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., May 25.—The Methodist general conference refused today by a vote 435 to 260 to remove from the discipline of the church the clause which provides the penalty of expulsion for church members who play cards, dance, and attend the theatres.

More stringent regulations regarding the re-marriage of Methodist ministers of divorced persons are provided in a report submitted today by the committee on the state of church. The church has never recognized any cause for divorce except adultery and has always forbidden remarriage in any case where a divorced wife or husband is living.

By the proposed change a minister who performs such a marriage is guilty of maladministration and is to be held answerable to his conference. The total abstinence by Methodist church members from the use of tobacco is urged in another report which states: "We record our solemn judgment that the habitual use of tobacco is a practice out of harmony with the best Christian life."

Polygamy and the social evil condemned by the committee on temperance and public morals. The enforcement of laws prohibiting the former is urged.

Regarding social evil the committee asserts that neither segregation nor punishment by fines is a remedy. The community should officially expel and disperse vice, it continues, and the state should provide industrial settlements for the mentally deficient and an honest place in society for these mentally capable.

Final action was taken on a report which reorganizes the department of home missions and church extension by placing the work under the charge of one corresponding secretary, who is the executive head.

and those which wanted only a slight increase. The Republicans recommended that the bill provide for two dreadnaughts omitted by the majority measure, six battle cruisers instead of five, fifty coast defense submarines instead of twenty, $2,500,000 for aircraft instead of $2,000,000, still greater increase in personnel, creation of a national defense council, and means for hushing the building program by using more than one shift of workmen daily. The report suggested that the two dreadnaughts be built according to plans now ready for the California and Tennessee, so that all might be finished simultaneously. The bill should provide, the report declared, for the

Germany Takes Deep Interest In Wilson's Reference To Mediation

Berlin, May 25.—(Via London)—A wireless despatch from the United States giving the substance of President Wilson's speech at Charlotte, North Carolina, in which he referred to the possibility of American mediation in the war, is given the place of honor in yesterday morning papers. The afternoon editions return to the subject and their comments, together with the wide interest shown by the German public, show how important this news is regarded here.

Though definitely stated nowhere, there is little doubt that Germany is willing to consider a tender of good offices to negotiate peace. The former attitude in highest quarters that America had disqualified herself as a peace mediator on account of her munitions shipments to the allies has now changed. If President Wilson can hold out any tangible possibilities that peace may result through his mediation, Germany will undoubtedly be willing to consider such suggestions as he may offer.

This latter is naturally conditioned on the fact that Germany will not be jockeyed into a position where she says she is willing to accept peace, only to find the allies refusing the offer. There is little doubt that the great mass of the people, outside of the professional hotspots in the newspaper offices, would willingly see America in the role of peace intermediary despite the persisting bitterness over the munitions question.

FAILS TO DISCLOSE A PLAN FOR ACTION

Washington, D. C., May 25.—President Wilson told callers today that the intervention of a neutral in behalf of peace in Europe rested only on a mutual understanding by the belligerents that terms to be arranged are to conserve the interests of all, and of the world at large, rather than those of a particular nation or group of nations among the warring powers.

Mr. Wilson did not disclose any definite plan of action he may have formulated in regard to peace, nor authorize a formal statement of his attitude. His callers gained an impression, however, that the president would entertain suggestions that he extend his good offices to the belligerents to bring about peace only when the conditions be outlined were likely of fulfillment.

Those who discussed the general subject of peace with Mr. Wilson considered his remarks as probably forecasting to some extent what he will say here later in the week, addressing the league to enforce peace. The impression has obtained in official circles that his remarks at that time would have an important bearing on the peace discussions recently in Berlin and in London, as well as in the American press.

Mr. Wilson pointed out to his callers that there are many elements in the situation in Europe, all of which must be taken into account in consideration of peace proposals. While he is eager to see the conflict ended as soon as possible, the White House visitors were able to gather no impression that a move by the United States to bring about is in immediate prospect at least.

MINISTERS WITHDRAWN
Berlin, May 25.—(By wireless to Sayville)—It is reported from Athens the Overseas News Agency says that Count A. De Bosdari, the Italian minister to Greece, and J. Guillemain, the French minister, have been recalled by their governments because of the failure of their efforts to obtain permission for the transportation of Serbian troops through Greece.

GREW SAID TO BEAR KAISER'S PEACE TERMS TO PRESIDENT WILSON

JOSEPH C. GREW
INTERNATIONAL SERVICE

Washington, May 25.—Keeping under cover the purport of the message he is said to bring from Ambassador Gerard after a conference at the battle front with the Kaiser, Joseph C. Grew, first secretary at the American embassy in Berlin, has arrived in Washington.

Since his return to America, Mr. Grew has evaded all questions as to the terms of peace the message is supposed to set forth. It is said that after the Kaiser had answered President Wilson's last note, he gave to Ambassador Gerard the outline of the basis of possible peace agreeable to the German people. The President, it was said, was to be asked by the German Kaiser to make the first move in bringing the war to a close.

FRENCH UNABLE TO RECAPTURE CUMIERES
Berlin, May 25.—(By wireless to Sayville)—The repulse of three counterattacks by the French on the village of Cumières, to the west of the Meuse, on the Verdun front, was announced by the war office today. The capture of additional French trenches southwest and south of Fort Douaumont, and the recapture of the Haumont quarry by the Germans are also reported.

VIGOROUS LANGUAGE IN NOTES TO ALLIES

Washington, D. C., May 25.—Vigorous language, equalling almost that employed in the last communications to Germany's submarine issue, is understood to characterize the notes delivered to the British and French embassies here yesterday protesting against interference with neutral mails on the high seas.

Outlines of these communications have been cabled to London and Paris by the embassies, and the full text will be forwarded by mail. The United States does not concede the right to even inspect the high seas, assuming that these do not include anything more than correspondence and are not made the vehicle for the supply of contraband to the belligerents.

A resolution authorizing the transportation of mail to and from neutral ports on naval vessels and declaring that "any interference with our mails shall be regarded by such ships with all power of the navy and of the ships," was introduced today by Representative Taggart, of Massachusetts. It declares "that Great Britain has shown no disposition to discontinue the practice which is a violation of rights at sea and our rights to do business with neutral countries." The resolution was referred to committee.

CHILDREN RIDE TO DEATH IN A TOY AUTOMOBILE

Cincinnati, O., May 25.—Robert Strybel, 3, and little cousin, Joseph Corwinski, 5, were killed under a street car. The children had an improvised wagon, fashioned from barrel staves and four wheels to play with. They tried it on the automobile driveway. For some reason the little wagon could not be stopped or turned when the sidewalk was reached. It ran directly in front of the oncoming street car.

Mrs. Clara Roushbolter of Fourth street, continues to recover steadily from a recent surgical operation she submitted to.

War Refugees Living On One Third Of Food Necessary To Maintain Life

New York, May 25.—The destitute in Belgium and Northern France are today living on one-third the amount of food necessary to maintain human life and more supplies are needed at once, says Casper Whitney, big game hunter and editor, who has been in charge of the work of the commission for relief in Belgium in the northern part of France since April, 1915. Mr. Whitney has just returned from Europe.

CASEMENT IS INDICTED FOR HIGH TREASON

London, May 25.—The grand jury today returned true bills against Sir Roger Casement, leader of the Sinn Féin revolt, and Daniel J. Bailey, the former British soldier, who is held as his accomplice.

The action of the grand jury follows the preliminary hearing before a police magistrate at which Casement and Bailey withheld their defense and were held without bail pending the grand jury deliberations.

Seventy-five grand jurors were summoned before Chief Justice Reading today and from their number twenty-three were selected to decide whether indictments for high treason should be returned against the two prisoners. Their decision was reported promptly.

In explaining the law to the jury the judge stated it was necessary that treason should be proved by overt acts. In the indictment against Casement as it stood, he said, six overt acts were mentioned. The court nominated Alexander Sullivan of Dublin and Artemus Jones, who appeared for the defense at the preliminary hearing, as counsel for Casement.

The judge fixed the trial of Sir Roger for June 6.

300 GO ON STRIKE WITHOUT NOTICE

East Liverpool, O., May 25.—Three hundred kiln drawers in potteries here declared a strike today, without notice. The strike was unexpected, as only last week the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters and the United States Potters' Association reached an agreement as to the wage scale for the kiln drawers. It is understood the men are now dissatisfied with the scale for drawing that ware.

PRESIDENT'S STAND GIVEN APPROVAL

Albuquerque, N. M., May 25.—Resolutions adopted at the state Democratic convention here approved President Wilson's "success in guarding the honor and just interests of America and at the same time keeping the country out of the European war" and "his wise foresight in handling the Mexican situation."

The farmers who thought I'd deserted you for base ball and other dry weather occupations are now seeing their mistake and dropping complimentary remarks about "an able weather man" and "like." If it hadn't a rained, wonder what they'd be saying. People always talk nice about you when you steer things their way. Here's for tomorrow: Ohio—Partly cloudy tonight and Friday. Probably showers in the extreme north portion. Kentucky—Fair tonight and probably Friday. West Virginia—Generally fair tonight and Friday. Warmer tonight.

MAYOR THREATENS CRIMINAL ACTION AGAINST CLERGYMEN

New York, May 25.—Fresh legal court proceedings, both criminal and civil, were promised today as the outcome of the wire tapping investigation. District Attorney Swann said that Frederick Seymour, the attorney, had consented to sign a complaint which would enable the public prosecutor to ask the grand jury for indictments against William J. Burns, the detective, for unlawfully entering Seymour's office.

Mayor Mitchell threatened criminal action against prominent Catholic clergymen, whom he accuses of conspiring to pervert justice and interfere with the state investigation of Catholic charitable institutions. One of the many things which we read about and are of immediate importance to the expectant mother, is a splendid external remedy called "Mother's Friend." This is applied over the muscles of the stomach. It is deeply penetrating in its action, and relieves the mother of all the pains incident to stretching of cords, hemorrhoids and muscles. They tell of relief of calm, peaceful nights, no absence of those distressing peculiarities in the period of expectancy, relief from morning sickness, no more of that apprehension which so many young women's minds become burdened. the men accused by the mayor, the Rev. William B. Farrell, said he intended to sue the mayor for defamation of character.

The district attorney sought permission to lay Burns' case before the grand jury after witnesses testified yesterday at John Doe proceedings before a city magistrate that the detective had Seymour's telephone wire tapped and even opened a desk in his office during one of his raids and made notes from papers therein.

It is charged that Burns was employed to find out how tips about war munitions contracts had leaked from the office of J. P. Morgan and Company. Today the district attorney sought to ascertain whether Burns' employers knew of the methods he used to obtain information and contumacious them. Burns is now on his way to New York from Los Angeles. His arrival is expected Saturday and the district attorney said he would have a chance to testify at the John Doe proceedings before any action was taken against them.

Investigation of police activities in tapping wires to obtain evidence against the Catholic charities authorities continued today before the Thompson legislative committee. Since Senator Thompson, the chairman, announced that the committee felt bound to hear any one of the persons mentioned by the mayor in his sweeping charges, it promised to be prolonged.

BRITISH AND IRISH LEADERS NEGOTIATING

London, May 25.—A large expectant crowd of members and the general public had assembled in the house of commons when shortly before three o'clock the afternoon Premier Asquith rose to make his statement on Irish affairs.

Although it was generally understood that the prime minister would not go into the controversial which were taking place between the members of the government and the Irish leaders as they had not advanced far enough to be made public, he started by expressing the hope that the disappearance of martial law would be speedy and complete.

Referring to the sacrifices that Irishmen had made in the behalf of the British Empire during the present war, Mr. Asquith said:

"Could we, who represent Great Britain, or could they, who represent Ireland, tolerate the prospect that when this war was over and when we had by our joint efforts and sacrifices, as we had hoped and believed, should have achieved our end, the home Irishmen had been arrayed against one another in the most tragic and most degrading of all conflicts—internecine, domestic strife."

Escape TOOTH Troubles

—by keeping your teeth REALLY CLEAN.
"But," you say, "I brush my teeth regularly, yet they decay." Yes, you brush them, but do you REALLY CLEAN them? Tonight, after brushing your teeth, examine them closely. You will likely find an accumulation of tartar on the enamel and bits of food deposit hiding in the crevices. Decay, as well as the dangerous gum disease called Pyorrhea, usually develop only in the mouth where germ-laden tartar is present. SENECEO, the formula of a dental specialist, keeps the teeth REALLY CLEAN. It embodies specially prepared soluble granules unusually effective in cleaning away food deposits. Moreover, it is particularly destructive to the germ of Pyorrhea. Go to your dealer today and get a tube of Senecco—keep your teeth REALLY CLEAN and protect yourself against Pyorrhea and decay. THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, May 25.—The cleavage between investment shares and speculative issues became more marked today, rails showing further weakness.

Reading's further descent from its recent high record was the most interesting development of today's irregular opening. The stock was offered in lots of 1,000 to 5,500 shares from 103 1/2 to 102 1/2, against yesterday's final quotation of 103 1/2. There were large transactions also in Mercantile Marine preferred and U. S. Steel at substantial gains, with further activity in the motors, chiefly Chandler and Studebaker, while Continental Can was strongest of the semi-war issues. Declines in all instances were fractional and reading soon made more than complete recovery.

The erratic movements in Reading which rallied to 105 1/2, only to fall back two points, was typical of the general trade during the first hour, prominent war issues also manifesting irregular tendencies. Later, on a further demand for high priced specialties the active list recovered in part or whole. Continental Can increased its gain to 6 1/2 points. Industrial Alcohol rose 3 1/2 with 5 for general motors and 2 1/2 for Chandler Motors, to the new record of 105 1/2. Trading lagged for a time but the rise was resumed towards midday, U. S. Steel leading with an advance of 1 1/2 to 86 1/2 on very extensive dealings.

Marine preferred also was very strong. Bonds were firm.

Reading made its low price of the session in the final hour, carrying other rails with it. Specialties also lost ground. The closing was irregular.

SOCIETY

The Chillicothe Daily Scioto Gazette has a wedding of interest in Portsmouth, the bride, Miss Schilder, being a sister of Edgar Schilder, former cartoonist on the Daily Blade, and she is a favorite niece of Mr. George Goudman, as follows:

"Very simple but beautiful was the wedding of Miss Loretta Josephine Schilder to Mr. Ernest Leo Kathie, which took place Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock, at St. Peter's church, Rev. M. A. Heintz officiating.

"The bridal party entered the church to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Theresa Burkley. The altar was decked with greenery and dainty white blossoms.

"The bride looked very charming in her wedding gown of white crepe tulle, combined with Georgette crepe. Her veil of tulle was caught to her golden brown hair with orange blossoms, those worn by her mother at her wedding. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and valley lilies.

Miss Dolores Garret, the dainty bridesmaid, looked very sweet in pink Georgette crepe with trimmings of silver lace. She carried pink roses. Her short veil

Dr. Edwards' STRENGTH TONIC

This Tonic which Dr. Edwards recommends is designed to restore strength to the weak, strength to the muscles, strength to the mind and strength to the nerves.

It is given to restore to the blood that rich red color which every weak and run-down person must have before he can get well and strong.

That Natural Ruddy Color

Of good health is absent in cases of thin, weak and run-down patients. Their cheeks, lips and eyelids lack that normal blood tint; and the feeling of well being is not with them. Dr. Edwards' Strength Tonic restores the color to the blood, drives away that sickly greenish pallor of the complexion and supplies fuel for the vital fire in weak and thin people.

Nervous Patients

Dr. Edwards says patients are nervous because they do not have enough rich, red blood to feed the nerves. So he made this Tonic to give the blood just what it needs for that purpose.

Sugar Coated Tablets

Dr. Edwards has his Tonic put in a sugar coated tablet so it will be pleasant to take and will not injure the teeth. Pale, thin, weak and run-down people contract diseases more frequently than well ones. They are liable to have Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Bright's Disease, Nervous Dyspepsia, Insanity, FEVERS and Consumption.

Don't Have These

Why not put yourself in shape not to have these diseases by letting Dr. Edwards' Strength Tonic help you out of your nervous and run-down condition? It will build you up right from the start by increasing your appetite, toning up the nervous system, enriching the blood and increasing your vital force. For sale by your druggist.

LIVER ACTING BADLY, STOMACH FULL OF GAS

Wine Glass Full of Tollo Water Will Start Your Liver and Relieve Your Stomach In Half An Hour.

The liver frequently becomes clogged because we eat too much rich food and take too little exercise. If it is kept clean and active we would never have sour, gassy stomachs, sallow skin or become constipated and bilious.

Calomel and other strong drugs are dangerous, they weaken the system, sallow or irritate, and should be avoided. Instead take about a third of a tumbler of Tollo Water in a glass of plain water before breakfast. In about half an hour it will flush all the bile and waste matter from your system. You will be surprised and pleased at how quickly and thoroughly it acts. Your headache will disappear at once, your eyes will become bright and clear, your meals will no longer distress you by forming gas that bloats the stomach.

Tollo is a concentrated water from Dawson Springs, the famous Kentucky health resort. Its use will keep the liver active because it flushes—really bathes the liver, dissolving the obstructions and washing out the bile tubes. It will keep the bowels regular as a clock and prevent the accumulation of waste which sours in the stomach and makes every meal a torture.

You can get a 15-cent bottle from any druggist and should take a little every morning until the system has been thoroughly cleaned of the bile it has absorbed. After the first day you will notice the skin begin to clear up and in a few days your natural healthy color will return and you will wake up with a clear head and the same joyous energy you had when a child.

Horse Shoe Pitching Contest Will Be A Novel Feature of Fair This Year.

Decide To Erect New Buildings At The Lucasville Fair Grounds

Members of the Scioto County Agricultural Association, at a meeting at the Lucasville fair grounds Wednesday afternoon, decided to build a new building 18 feet wide and 100 feet long for the display of farm implements, luggies and automobiles. Twenty-five new horse stalls will also be built.

Prof. E. O. McCowan, who was present, asked the Association to make a donation to pay the expenses of sending the best speller in the county to the state spelling bee. The members did not think it right to use county money and took up a collection among themselves, the result being that $12 was turned over to Prof. McCowan. John Bauer of Portsmouth, was present and said he would make up the balance if more than $12 was needed.

The members also set aside $50 to be used for the school exhibit. The money will not be paid out in individual prizes but will be used mostly in paying for the transportation of the exhibits to the grounds and for putting them on display.

An exhibit from the experimental farm station at Wooster will be one of the features of this year's fair.

Another feature will be the horse shoe pitchers' contest. Word has been received that a horse shoe pitching contest will be held at the state fair and word has been sent out that a contestant is wanted from every county. A prize of $5 will be offered to the best horse shoe pitcher in Scioto county at the county fair. An entrance fee of about five cents will be charged contestants.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 60.

Dear Miss Wise.—I see where you have given others good advice and thought you might help me. Should a boy walk home with his sweetheart after Sunday school is over or not? Should a girl slip off from her parents and take a drive and not let them know she is going? Is it proper for her mother to threaten him with a butcher knife? Is there any harm for girls in town to hang around the stores and ask the boys to buy them candy? What will make me heavy?

S. S.
It is perfectly proper for a boy to walk home with his "sweetheart" after Sunday school, but he should by all means go to Sunday school. A girl should not go against the wishes of her parents and to deceive the parents in any way, often leads to serious complications. Perhaps the mother "felt like using a butcher knife on him," but it is hardly the proper thing for a mother to make such threats. At the same time the girl should give her mother no provocation for making a threat and the boy who will induce a girl to take a buggy ride against the wishes of her parents is not the right kind of a boy to go with. It is far from lady-like for girls to hang around stores, asking boys to buy them candy. They should be home helping their mothers.

Plenty of sleep, good, substantial and regular eating will make some people heavy, while others are never inclined that way.

Dear Miss Wise.—I have heard from good authority that a certain girl asked my friend's sister who I was and she seems to have taken an interest in me. When I pass her she will look at me as if she would speak. Her parents are of good standing. I know her name but do not know her to speak to. I do not like to speak to her for fear she may think I am trying to act smart. I would like to know whether it would be right to speak to her, or if not, how would I act to get acquainted?

F. C. H.
Do not speak to the girl without an introduction. Why don't you ask your friend or his sister to introduce you?

Dear Miss Wise.—I am 17 and dressed very neatly though very plainly, and my mother always says that a neat, sweet little girl attracts more attention than a loud, overdressed girl. Do you think so? I envy girls walking on the streets, as I wish I had some of their pretty things. I am a pretty thing, too, but my mother does not believe in them. Please tell me what to do and what is right.

LONESOME MERCY.
Your mother is quite right. A girl of 17 should dress neatly but conspicuously. When you are older you will have just that more pleasure in pretty clothes. Refined girls of 17 always dress plainly.

Dear Miss Wise.—I am a young man of 23 and have been keeping company with a young lady for just one year and a half. I ought to know her very well by this time, which I do, and I know she is not a girl of extravagance. Now what I want to ask you is this: Do you think we could get along on $70 a month if we both use some economy? Would like to know very much, as I am engaged to this young lady.

Yes, I think you could get along on $70 a month. Love doesn't mind economizing.

Dear Miss Wise.—Are raw eggs good for people who are bothered with stomach trouble? Do you think read furniture pretty for a porch?

ROSE.
Stomach specialists recommend raw eggs for stomach trouble. If you are able to eat them in this way put them in a glass and sprinkle a little salt and pepper over them. Eat slowly. Some people do not like the taste of raw eggs and gulp them down. While this method is not altogether harmful, it is not as beneficial as the other. A diet of vegetables and fruits and drinking buttermilk at least six times a day, will also help stomach trouble. Do not eat meats or pastry of any kind. Fish and game are excellent substitutes. Read furniture is ideal for porch use.

SOCIETY

A pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at St. Mary's church, where Mr. George Edward Cox, employed at the East End Furniture store, and Miss Clara Isabel Walter, operator at the Bell Telephone office, were married at half past six. Rev. Father Goebel officiated. The bride was a lovely gown of white tulle and lace. Her white picture hat was most becoming and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Her maid wore a dainty gown of white organdie, carried an arm bouquet of pink rose-buds and wore a white picture hat. The ceremony was followed by an elegant breakfast at the cozy home of the bride and groom, corner of Twentieth and Summit streets.

Those present were Misses Margaret and Beulah Briggs, Tessie Rachford, Edna Lewis, Hazel Rapp. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Tessie Rachford.

Little Miss Marx, of Columbus, is the winsome guest of Mr. Simon Labold and daughter, Miss Leona Labold, of Fourth street.

Mrs. Rose Labold, of Fourth street, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Longini, of Cincinnati.

Dear Miss Wise.—Would it be proper for me to send a girl friend of mine a graduation present even though I do not receive an invitation? If so what would be a nice one that will not cost more than five dollars? Is this stationery up to date?

DILL F.
It would indeed be proper, and she would no doubt appreciate it. I suggest that you buy some small piece of jewelry, or a box of stationery would be appropriate. Your stationery is right up to the minute.

Dear Miss Wise.—How many players on the Portsmouth Cobblers team live in Portsmouth? Please name them.

A FAN.
There are three players on the Portsmouth team living in this city: Manager Ches Spencer; Pitcher Hubert Test and second string catcher Carl Hubert.

Dear Miss Wise.—I have a red nose. Can you tell me what to do for it? I strictly abstain from all alcoholic liquors.

J. J.
Your red nose may be caused by overeating. Try cutting down in your diet and a system of regular habits. It will take a long course of careful attention to diet to get results.

Plenty of good things are in store as well for those who want to go bathing, fishing, bowling, hiking.

Several hiking parties have been planned among the House Girls, High School and Business Girls. The class in Christian Citizenship will meet Friday. If weather permits the girls will take a picnic lunch to the Bonches.

Children Need A Warm Table Drink

Many parents understand that tea and coffee hinder mental development and body growth in their children, but are puzzled how to gratify the little folk's desire for a warm drink, without harming them.

For years now, in a considerable number of American homes, the problem has been solved by

Instant Postum

This pure food-drink is made of prime wheat, roasted with a bit of pure, wholesome molasses. It closely resembles the higher grades of mild Java coffee in color and flavor, has a delicious aroma, and is so pleasing that the older folks join the children in this wholesome beverage.

Where the rest of the family stick to coffee, Instant Postum for the children causes no work. A level teaspoonful in a cup with hot water and cream and sugar to taste, makes a delicious drink instantly.

"There's a Reason" for POSTUM

Sold by Grocers everywhere.

NEGROES BOARD CAR AND ROB KENTUCKY FARMER

Three negroes boarded a Norfolk and Western freight car near Kenova, W. Va., early Thursday morning and held up Reuben Childress, Jenkins, Ky., who was accompanying his live stock to Columbus, and robbed him of $36 in cash and a gold watch valued at $45. After they had taken the watch and the money, the negroes jumped from the train and made their escape.

When the freight arrived in Portsmouth, Mr. Childress went to the yard office and told B. S. Fugitt of the robbery and Detectives Andy Leslie and Bob Reno were called.

Mr. Childress said he was moving his household goods and live stock to Columbus from his old home at Jenkins, Ky., and was accompanying the car to care for his stock. A little after midnight three negroes entered the car and demanded his money. They threatened him with a pistol and then took his gold watch, a bill of lading, which they believed to be a valuable paper, and $36 in currency.

After looking around for a few moments, the trio jumped from the train and made their escape.

Mr. Childress arrived in the East Portsmouth yard at four o'clock and left for Columbus at six o'clock.

No Action Is Taken By State Board On Hilltop Sewer Plans

Disappointment expressed by officials around the city building Wednesday will probably be shared by the thousand or more Hill Top property owners contemplating sanitary sewer connections over word received from James E. Bagman, secretary of the state board of health, that no action has as yet been taken on the proposed new sanitary sewer system for that section.

The board failed to have a quorum on its meeting day, May 17, and the report on City Engineer Samuel Harper's plans submitted May 7 made by the department of sanitary engineering will not be passed upon until the next meeting which will be June 12.

The sanitary engineering department recommended approval of the Portsmouth engineer's plans on the following conditions:

1. That an ordinance be passed satisfactory to the secretary of the board, defining the possible use of sanitary, combination and storm water sewerage, providing for the issuance of permits for sewer connections, inspection and recording thereof and providing for a proper official to superintend the work.

2. That sewerage for the entire city be treated in a manner satisfactory to the state board when it is deemed necessary by the board.

3. That this approval shall be void unless contracts for installation of additional sewers shall have been awarded prior to Jan. 1, 1917.

While the report of the department is not bidding the secretary writes that its recommendations will probably be adopted but if it is necessary to proceed with the awarding of contracts for sewers the department will have no objection to such, provided it is done at the city's risk. It is suggested that a clause be inserted in contracts making them subject to the approval of the state board.

East End Robbery

Breaking a pane of glass out of a rear window in the gents' furnishings and shoe store of L. F. Lemon & company, 2110 Gallia street, sometime this morning, unknown rascals unlatched the window and then raised it and climbed through it into the store.

So far as could be learned, according to Mr. Lemon, the thieves secured only several pairs of shoes, the exact number not having yet been determined.

The thieves were of a tidy nature, as they failed to scatter goods around promiscuously, everything being found in its normal condition when Mr. Lemon opened his store Thursday morning. The robbery was reported to the police.

Selling Drugs

Oscar Brown left Wednesday on a trip up the Big Sandy in the interest of the Davis Drug company.

Benefit Show Tonight

Owing to the death of Mrs. Bernice Lilly, wife of the leading man of the stock company at the Sun, a change has been necessitated in the performance to be given for the benefit of the Carpenters' Union this evening. A vaudeville entertainment will be given instead of the play, "Don't Tell My Wife," which was advertised. Attendants are assured that a good entertainment will be given.

The members of the committee regret the change but patrons will realize that it was unavoidable.

Elks Decide To Give Another "Indoor Fair" During Korn Karnival

Portsmouth Lodge 154, B. P. O. Elks, at their meeting, Wednesday night, arranged to give another Indoor Fair, and it will be held in their home, Sixth and Chillicothe streets, during Korn Karnival week. So much of a success was last year's fair that it was decided to repeat it this year, and a committee on arrangements will be announced later.

Past Exalted Ruler H. Stanley McCall was presented with a beautiful past-exalted ruler's jewel by the lodge, which enjoyed a singularly prosperous year under his leadership. The presentation speech was made by E. K. S. Chinkenshead, and it proved to be one of the best Portsmouth Elks have heard in a long time. Mr. McCall responded with a clever speech of acceptance.

In recognition of his faithful service rendered during the remodeling of the Elks' present quarters, L. P. Haldeman was made a life member of the lodge last night. The honor came as a complete surprise to him.

Actor's Wife Dies At City Hospital

Death ended the long sufferings of Mrs. Clara Bernice Lilley, aged 30 years, wife of Ed Clark Lilley, leading man of the Palace Players, who have been playing at the Sun theater, she passing away at Hempstead Hospital, Thursday morning at 3:40 o'clock.

Mrs. Lilley, who had been troubled with a complication of diseases ever since last August, had been bedfast ever since the day of her arrival here. Three weeks ago she was admitted to the hospital to undergo a surgical operation, but was unable to muster enough strength to undergo the ordeal. She remained conscious up until a few hours before the end came. Mr. and Mrs. Lilley during their stay here have resided at The Colonial boarding house on Fifth street.

Mrs. Lilley was a native of Jonesboro, Ind., the daughter of John Stanley Cooper, a prominent business man of Columbus, Ind. She was married to Mr. Lilley ten years ago and besides him, leaves two children: Evelyn, aged 9 years, and John, aged 7 years, who are with relatives in Indiana. She is also survived by an only sister, Miss Edna Cooper, an actress with the Palace Players, and one brother, George Cooper, of Columbus, Ind.

The remains will be taken to the former home in Jonesboro, Ind., Friday for burial.

DIRECTORS OF BUSINESS MEN TO MEET

There will be an important meeting of the directors of the Business Men's Association Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. All directors are expected to attend.

CAMP LIFE TOO MONOTONOUS FOR JUDGE BEATTY; HE'S BACK HOME

Judge Thomas C. Beatty, probate court, returned Thursday bright and early from his annual vacation.

Judge Beatty left Tuesday for Cliff Ford, where he had planned to stay until Saturday evening. The first day, he says, he caught some nice fish and enjoyed the haking sun and hot sands along the Scioto river. Night came and the whip-poor-wills attempted to out-whistle each other; the crickets were having a noise contest; the owls were having a festivity of some kind; the trains rumbled past every few minutes and the mosquitoes, one hundred thousand strong, rushed to and fro past the camp.

Judge Beatty said he remained just as long as he could and then returned. He says he is mighty glad to get back to Portsmouth and home. No more hard boiled eggs and individual cooking for him. Judge was accompanied by his son, Howard.

Messrs. George and William Zottman are having their automobile repainted.

Cutting With Intent To Kill Charge Filed Against Stewart STEEL COMPANY WANTS TO BUY LAND FROM THE CITY

Mason McRoberts and Will Stewart, New Boston men badly cut in a knife battle Monday evening are getting along as well as could be expected.

Stewart, the least injured of the two is able to sit up. McRoberts, who was dangerously cut was reported resting easily Thursday although he is not yet out of danger.

McRoberts signed an affidavit Tuesday charging Stewart with cutting with intent to kill. Marshal Isaac Wells served the warrant Wednesday but on the advice of Stewart's physician he was left at home, not being in shape to be moved to jail. No charges have been filed against McRoberts.

Removed To County Jail

Arthur Fillmore, the Earlytown youth held to the grand jury on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon, and John Lewis, the East Portsmouth man, sentenced for abusing his wife, were transferred from the city prison to the county jail Wednesday.

The Whitaker-Glesner company has opened negotiations with the city for the purchase of the present unused new city water works ground, directly east of Idlewild.

The company officials have asked the city to name a price upon the tract, which is about 400 ft. wide and 450 ft. long, located between the filtration plant on Gallia pike and the pumping station near the river bank, and while the company would rather buy the land outright, has signified a willingness to lease it for a long period of years.

The board of control has had the matter under consideration at two meetings and is busy investigating with a view to presenting some tangible report upon the same to city council at its next meeting Wednesday, June 7. The main question that the city officials will have to determine is whether there is any danger of the city ever needing the ground for waterworks purposes.

Mayor H. H. Kays personally favors selling the land to the steel company as he believes in assisting big industries, for it always means the development of the city. The ground will fit in nicely with that already acquired by the company for its proposed big improvements.

Baker Is Fined Despite "Constitutional Rights;" Had Abused Justices

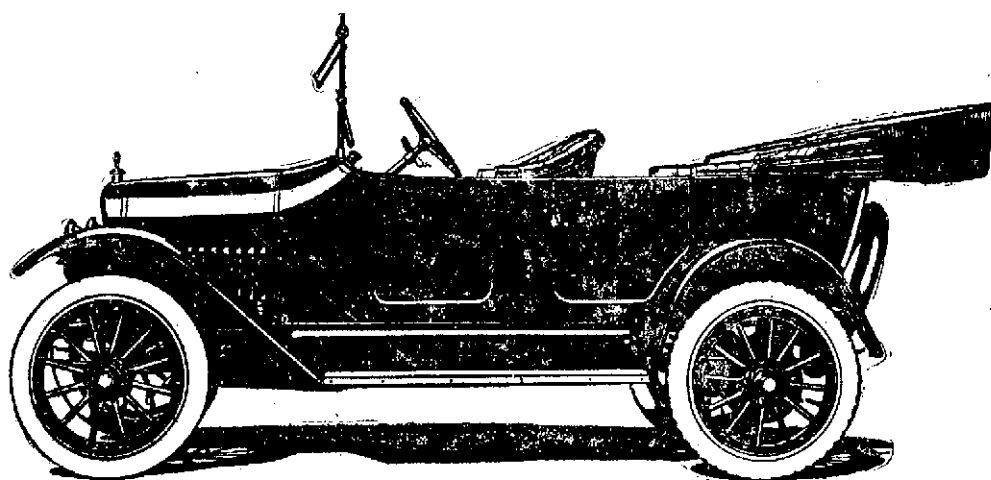

Okey Baker claimed to be asserting his constitutional right as a citizen when he denounced local justices of the peace for not giving him any law against Joe

Stearns and that the police violated said constitution when they arrested him Wednesday evening. Baker had called up police headquarters and complained that his landlord, Mr. Stearns, had removed the front door of his home from its hinges in an effort to get rid of him as a tenant. Okey occupied a small shack near Broadway, between Fifth and Sixth streets. When he protested to Stearns that gentleman advised him to carry his troubles to some magistrate. The police refused to entertain his complaint because his incoherent talking over the telephone plainly indicated he was under the influence of liquor. Within a short time a call came from Squire John W. Byron that Baker was abusing him. Sergeant Officer John Smith rounded the corner of Sixth and Washington streets, in time to see Baker on the sidewalk in front of the squire's office, wildly gesticulating. Baker, as he caught sight of the approaching officer, "took to his heels", disappearing down Court street. Smith continued a vigorous search for him and retraced his steps to Sixth street, just in time to see Squire A. J. Finney ejecting Baker from his home.

Baker pleaded guilty in police court, Thursday, to drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was fined $10 and warned that he would have to pay it in addition to a previously imposed and unpaid fine of $5.

Minford Brown, better known as "Brownie", has returned to Cleveland after a few days' visit with relatives of this city. Mr. Brown holds a splendid position at the Otis steel plant in Cleveland.

What Do You Know About The Maxwell Car?

THIS is the time of the year when more people are considering the question of "what car to buy" than at any other time of the year.

This community has its full share of people who will soon be driving their first car or a new car to replace the old one.

Now, we know that we are going to sell Maxwell Cars to a great many of these people—depending upon how many we are able to acquaint with the merits of the Maxwell.

The generous value offered in the car is so evident—its past record is so full of good performance—owners speak so well of it—that when the buyer knows these things, he is eager to buy a Maxwell.

In order to tell as many people as possible about the merits of the Maxwell Car we are going to spend a lot of money in the next few weeks in this paper advertising Maxwell merits to those who do not know them.

The reason—we want to sell as many Maxwells as possible this season. Our future allotments will depend upon how many Maxwells we sell now.

You may know that the Maxwell market is a buyer's market, not a seller's market—broadly speaking. The demand for Maxwells the country over is greater than the supply.

For this reason cars are allotted to dealers by the factory according to the size of the dealer's business.

We want to make a showing and be in a position to get a generous allotment of Maxwells hereafter. Because the more Maxwells are sold in any community, the greater is the future demand. We realize the opportunity to do an ever-increasing Maxwell business.

This is only the first of the several messages we are going to print—a few days apart—concerning the Maxwell Car. But we don't expect to be able to adequately present Maxwell merits in printed words alone.

If you are one who is going to buy a new car you will find it decidedly to your advantage to find out all you can about the Maxwell before you place your order.

Come in and talk it over with us and let us demonstrate the car to you. Then, don't take our word alone, but ask those who now own Maxwells.

Get "posted" about the Maxwell and you will realize more satisfaction and get more "value received" for your motor car money than ever before.

And we are just as willing to have you investigate other cars just as fully as you do ours. The Maxwell will not suffer by the comparison.

Why not start your Maxwell investigation today?

OUR INDIAN FRIENDS

(Dayton Daily News)

The Colony Courier, of Oklahoma, contains an unusually interesting local column this week. Our Indian friends have "made news" for the editor in "considerable quantity." And the editor, good Indian that we hope he is, prints the items in language plain and to the point, as Indians speak. Here are a few "happenings" which we consider of sufficient importance to reproduce even at this distance from Oklahoma:

"Little Bird and Hannah Little Bird are taking care of Ella Little Bird's house while she is in hospital at El Reno. Ella was operated on at El Reno and is doing well."

"Swift Wolf and James Monroe are bachelors together at Swift Wolf house in Colony while Mrs. Swift Wolf is off visiting friends and relatives near Calumet. Swift Wolf buys the grub and does the cooking, James Monroe cuts wood, brings water and washes the dishes."

"Bichea Charcoal has bought sewing machine from Colony Mercantile Co. Bichea has white girl that is going to keep house for her and is also going to sew for her."

"Thunder Bull has employed Hot Tamala Man Mexican to farm for him this year at his place."

"Araspho Medicine Men and Medicine Women are in camp at Two babies to make their annual medicines out of different kinds of roots. They make their medicines once year this is old custom of Arasphoes."

"Creeping Bear and Bald Head are now living on Washita on Creeping Bear's allotment. The grass is good and they are grazing their Mexican mules. One of their mules is had mule. Creeping Bear has named it Villa after the Bandit."

"Prairie Chief and his wife White Buffalo Woman have been visiting his son-in-law, Frank Hamilton and family for few days and have gone over to visit Perry Reynolds and his family on Deer Creek."

"Mountain One Woman, and Lucile Mountain have been out on Washita River visiting friends and relatives have returned to Colony to their home."

"Maggie Woman Wolf Chief has bought $5.00 worth of seed for Watan. Watan is going to make big garden at his home place east of Colony, this will be company garden as Maggie Woman is furnishing the seed and Watan the ground."

"Bear Bow and Black Eagle are going to put in garden together at Julia Lizard's place, this will be company garden also."

"Red Bird Wolf and his wife Maggie Woman have selected place on Magpie Woman's allotment to build their six room house and big barn, on Washita River near Big Jake Crossing. They are going to employ Lost Leg and Smells Like Bear, northern Cheyennes from Tongue River agency Montana to work for them while they are here visiting. Red Bird can not do any work himself as he is nearly blind. He wants to help these two northern Cheyennes in money matters so they will have money to go back home with."

Our bundle does not measure up to our brag. After all the talk about how we have kept Belgium from starvation it turns out that we have contributed only $15,000,000 of the $132,000,000 that the world at large has given to her relief. Still that, little as it is, considering our wealth, is a good deal better than nothing.

The New Hampshire Portsmouth Times says Hughes carried Vermont in the Republican primaries to the surprise of all, but it wouldn't be surprising for him to carry the state in November, if he were nominated. This may sound heretical as a statement from a Democratic paper, which the New Hampshire Times is, but consider it and you will find it merely a joke. Vermont is the Republican Mississippi.

Mexico is negotiating an enormous loan with the United States, or rather from United States capitalists. Surest sign of peace and that she has got to be good.

As ye sow so shall ye reap doesn't always hold good. Especially if you live next door to a neighbor, who keeps a flock of chickens with a roving disposition, and who ever heard of any other kind?

Rather remarkable how exactly accurate the weather forecasts are. Saturday the forecast was for cooler weather for the first of the week, with rain Monday and Tuesday, and a rising temperature on the latter, with clear skies and warmer following. That is it could not have been more accurate had the weather been described afterwards instead of before.

The amiable Mr. Taft has, as yet, expressed no preference for any one among the many Republican presidential candidates. Since, however, a certain announcement of Monday, we have a hope, no, rather, an expectation, that his placidity will be ruffled enough for him to indicate there is one individual he would not approve of for nomination.

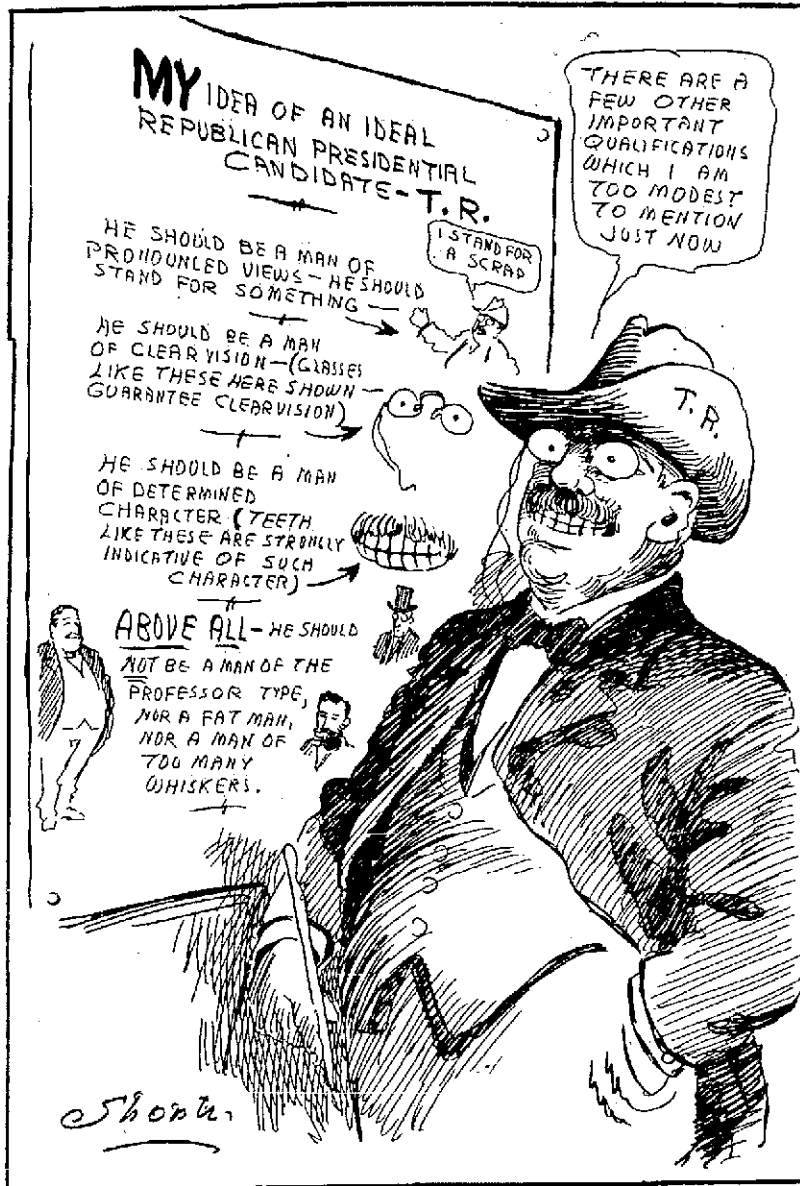

It is the boast of the Huntington Advertiser that a West Virginia convention is never too proud to light.

England's war now lacks but the mere bagatelle of a hundred million of being twelve billion dollars and she announces she hasn't yet got a good start in the fight.

We do not know that the country is sleeping any sounder since the bigger army bill was passed, but the press is not raising so many dreadful alarms.

As yet none seem to be willing to try to take away from Villa the championship belt as the long distance runner.

NO MISTAKE ABOUT IT—TEDDY KNOWS THE VERY MAN

THE HIGHEST AUTHORITY

Manager John McGraw, of the New York team, is acknowledged the master mind of base ball, and what he says on that particular subject may be accounted as the highest authority. It is, therefore, impressive, that when asked what he thought would conduce most to the popularity and permanency of the sport, his reply was clear and simple accounts of the plays without any use of terms and expressions. It is likely most attendants at the games will agree with him. Accounts of base ball games have degenerated largely into linguistic buffoonery. Writers play too much to each other and the "tin-horn sports." Their descriptions are a jungle of jargon, a perversion of words, a crude striving after effect and a jumbling of metaphors that are generally grotesque and often little short of idiotic. Certainly, they add nothing to its dignity and how it is thought its interest or popularity can be increased thereby goes beyond ordinary understanding. It is to the prime credit of base ball that ever since its introduction it has been the cleanest of pastimes and undoubtedly occupies the most honorable place today in all public diversions. So it will be more than doubly unfortunate if it should be killed by the absurd treatment of those whose particular business it is to foster and make it stronger.

A contemporary warns its readers not to put paper money in their mouths. Certainly not, put it in the pocket book, or in circulation, and yet better, in a savings account, a medium of it at least.

A local firm has a plan to belt the river front with a boulevard, instead of a dood wall, as we have come to think of high water protection. May appear something of an idealism, but an interurban service is an accomplished fact.

Blessed is he who sees three blessings where only two are supposed to be. An exchange observes the rains not only laid the dust and caused vegetation to grow, but it enables the seeing of more double-enders, baseballly speaking.

Those Mexicans must have a sight more craft than they are given credit for. "Our boys" that are scouting after the Villistas complain whenever they approach the soundrels hide their guns and become more "ornery" poets.

A thing is hardly ever so bad as it is said to be. We don't hear any more of the jitney putting the street railway out of business.

Indeed, war's horrors are far reaching and there is no nook, corner or crevice of the world that escapes such a conflict as is now on. For three mortal hours this afternoon the man and the organ on the street have been grinding steadily and relentlessly on "It's A Long Way To Tipperary," and every brilliant paragraph we indit has a tendency to slide off into "It's a long way to the sweetest girl I know." For believe us turning "era out is some grind."

Another critic has come over across the pond and sailing back left behind the word that the fault of the American press is that it deals in facts and not in ideals. Thanks for the compliment. We have long striven to earn and get it.

We shudder to think how horrible will become our naked and unprotected estate if Teddy should get that nomination.

We would never expect the Bull Moose angel, George W. Perkins, to pay Wilson the compliment, yet he says "a vast deal depends on the experience, tact, wisdom, and strength of the executive."

In considering that reward of fifty thousand for Villa bear in mind that the highest price is placed on his cadaver.

Nowhere have we seen a rush to get into the first ranks of that bigger army.

Senatorial courtesy usually resolves itself into discourtesy to the president.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Mr. Garden Toad Solves The Mystery

"Oh, I eat, Mr. Garden Toad!" cried Billy Robin, when, later in the morning, he awoke Mr. Garden Toad rapping towards his napping place near the old log. "Please don't go to sleep yet. I want to ask you something."

"Ask me something?" exclaimed Mr. Garden Toad. "You surprise me, Billy. You've been so quiet this morning I thought you must have found a good eating place somewhere else. What did you want to ask me?" "I want to know about something in the front yard," replied Billy. "Can't you come around there and look at something I want explained?" "Ho, ho," croaked the toad, much amused at Billy's request. "You are a funny Billy! Do you want me to hop entirely around the house just to see something for you?" "Well," said Billy (and to tell the truth he was rather ashamed when Mr. Garden Toad put his request that way), "that's what I wanted. But of course—"

"Why, Billy, it's a long way around to the front yard—for me! I'd have to hop past the kitchen, and past the dining-room and past the chimney-place and past the—"

"Of course it's a long way!" interrupted Billy. "I am so used to trying that I forget some folks have to hop. And hopping is slow business. I've noticed that. But I did want to ask you about something."

"Suppose you ask me anyway," suggested Mr. Garden Toad. "Suppose you describe to me what you have seen. Maybe I can tell you about it quite as well as if I had seen the sight myself. Try and see, try and see, and see."

Billy thought that was a fine idea—much better than to wait while Mr. Garden Toad laboriously hopped around to the distant front yard. So he perched on a low bush close by where Mr. Garden Toad was and he told him all about the funny ridges and hills in the front yard; and about the dirt pile that grew as if by magic.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O-O-MEINTYRE.

New York, May 24—The markets are opening in Hester street, on the lower East Side. Hester street is the only remaining touch of the polyglot life of the slums. Marble apartment houses with elevators are wiping out the seething tenement bee-hives.

But Hester street, where every one has something to sell, remains. Double rows of push-carts and moving curiosity shops line the curbs from one end to the other. From these carts the shopper may select furs, notions, ribbons and lace, clothing, hardware, shoes and cooking utensils. Anything the Ghetto desires is on display.

The other day, however, one of the old-time institutions was destroyed with the abolishment of the horse-carts that run on Avenue C. A new merchant is disposing baked sweet potatoes from the oven of a sheet iron stove on wheels. One push cart man sells fish, ice-cream and pickles—a fine gastronomic mixture. Another cart is filled with raisins. Apples dipped in candy may be purchased for one cent apiece, and a man with rings of rusty keys for sale has made a living there for years. He also carried a side line of wax candles and matches which make the Great White Way of Hester street.

Even the police reporters are resorting to verse like as if the reading public did not have enough melancholy things to digest. The first rascal to perpetrate the verse libel story was Charles L. Edison, who began:

Probably it would be impossible to concentrate more giggling in a given space than comes rippling to the surface when four or five girls get around a weighing machine, mount it in turn and exclaim over how unexpectedly little or how surprisingly much each weighs.—Ohio State Journal.

This is a cruel job. Says a New York paragrapher: "Maybe the dose of peace party would support Hughes out of respect for his beautiful fan-tail whiskers."

The Glad To See You Man

The glad to see you treatment is great for human ills. It's better than prescriptions. And multitudes of pills. Tomorrow Jones may grumble. And look downcast and blue. The glad to see you manner. Or some one, sad and hopeless, May seek the way to crime. Your glad to see you greeting May stop him, just in time. So if through life you carry This cheerful phrase with you, It's ten to one the angels Will be glad to see you, too! —H. Stanley Haskin.

GERMANS RETAKE FORT DOUAUMONT FROM FRENCH

Paris Admits Loss Of Fort But Claim To Hold Approach

GERMANS SUFFER HEAVILY

Paris, May 25.—The Germans have recaptured Fort Douaumont while the French hold the immediate approach to that position. This announcement is made in the official statement issued by the French war office tonight, which says that two new divisions of Bavarians effected the recapture after a series of attacks.

The text of the statement reads: "On the left bank of the Meuse the infantry action continued. East of Le Mort Homme several times our artillery fire stopped the enemy who had attempted to disembark from the village of Cumieres. During the afternoon a spirited counter attack enabled us to retake trenches situated on the southern outskirts of the village.

"On the right bank the bombardment was redoubled in the region of Fort Douaumont, on which the enemy had particularly set himself. Furious attacks with two Bavarian divisions newly arrived on this front, succeeded each other all day. After several fruitless attempts, the enemy succeeded in recapturing the ruins of the fort. Our troops held the immediate approach.

"About the same time an attempt to flank our position by the Caillotte Wood completely failed under our fire."

Paris, May 25.—The tide of battle at Verdun flowed against the French during the last twenty-four hours. The Germans, relying on the smashing blows which took from them the greater part of Fort Douaumont, hurled their legions once more against the ruins which remain by courtesy of the title of fort, and by a lavish expenditure of life, succeeded in

AIRSHIP AND GUNBOAT LOST BY AUSTRIANS

Rome, May 25.—(Via Paris)—An Austrian aeroplane and an Austrian gunboat have been destroyed in a battle with an Italian gun boat in the Upper Adriatic. The crew of the Austrian craft were taken prisoner. A building on the outskirts of Porto Ferrajo was bombarded by an Austrian submarine which was driven off by the coast batteries before much damage was done.

Porto Ferrajo is the capital of the island of Elba and if the Austrian submarine started from the Austrian base at Pola it must have almost completely circumnavigated Italy to reach its objective. The villa occupied by Napoleon during his exile to Elba stands on a height overlooking Porto Ferrajo.

partially retrieving the ground they had lost on the right bank of the Meuse. They also gained a small advantage on the left side of the river. The occupation of the village of Cumieres gives the Germans a slight advantage, as to a certain extent it commands the French lateral communications.

Paris, May 25.—German troops made an attack last night on French positions on the Verdun front west of the Handromont woods and obtained a footing in one of the French trenches, the war office announced today. East of Cumieres, to the west of the Meuse, the French made some progress in grenade fighting.

"MAN FROM EGYPT" TO PLAY AN IMPORTANT PART IN FIGHT TO SAVE DR. WAITE FROM CHAIR

New York, N. Y., May 25.—The fight to save Dr. Arthur Warren Waite from the electric chair began today before Justice Shern in the criminal branch of the supreme court. The prosecution closed its case yesterday and this morning counsel for the defense marshaled alienists and relatives of the accused man to prove that he was insane when he killed his wealthy father-in-law, John E. Peck, of Grand Rapids, by giving him repeated doses of arsenic.

It is understood that the defense will make no claim that Waite is insane at the present time. An effort will be made to show that he was in a highly nervous state for several months preceding the death of Mr. Peck, that he was subject to "obsessions" and the victim of mental suggestions coming from another self, which the defendant called "the man from Egypt." Among the important witnesses for the defense are Dr. Morris J. Karpus and Dr. Allen R. Dieffenber and Frank Waite, the prisoner's brother, who, it is expected, will tell of the defendant's early life and family history. Waite's attorney has announced that the defendant will take the stand and he may be called before the end of today's proceedings.

Almost the only testimony relating to Waite's mental condition brought out by the witnesses for the prosecution came from Mrs. Margaret Weaver Horton, who said the young dentist had confessed his love for her, but who affirmed that their relations were purely "platonic." Mrs. Horton said Waite had spoken to her about "the man from Egypt." When he was in the hospital, suffering from the drugs he took after the discovery of the alleged crime, he wrote to her, she said, that the hospital guards thought him "insane." I think the letter said, "she testified, "that he could go to an institution for awhile, and then get out."

Mrs. Horton asserted that Waite told her he killed Peck.

Zowie! Colts Beat The Champs Twice In One Afternoon

Kentuckians Grab Both Ends Of First Double Header; Final Game At 3 P. M. Today

Two beatings in one afternoon. That is what happened to the Champs at Millbrook Wednesday afternoon when they hooked up with Lexington for the first double header of the season in the local yard. The first game was a 5 to 4 affair and the second ended 4 to 3. The visitors acquired the deciding run in each contest. Jacobus was not as effective as usual in the get away contest, but the two clubs would have battled in extra innings had not "Study" Dills dropped Guy's fly to right after he settled under it. He made a square muff of it, permitted the Colts to take the lead and they were never headed. Several times Portsmouth was in a position to tie up the game but Col. Finch Hitter was taking a day off and there was nothing doing in this line.

In the second game Lexington got the jump on King by scoring a trio of runs before he could settle down. Portsmouth drew up alongside of their opponents in the third when three hits, two bad pegs by Biddy Beers belted two runs, but Hanna was yanked in favor of Rorer and the stuff was off. Lexington boldly walked away with the long end of both games and thereby spread a little alarm on the percentage of the Spencer men and some of his fledglings.

Lexington started scoring in the second inning of the first game. Beers lined a double to center with three and two on him and Thomas moved him up on a sacrifice fly. White's smutty hit to Dills enabled Beers to get safely but Barrett's blast was pulled down by Fisher. Portsmouth came right back and garnered two runs. McHenry drew a walk and Dillhofer promptly put him down. Deane singled and McHenry scored and Deane took second on the throw home. Spencer flew to Devereaux, but Jacobus reached first on McHenry's lead throw and first on Deane's scored. Jacobus grounded.

After McHenry tossed out Bush in the fifth Jacobus tripled to right center, but he remained anchored on third as Dills lined right at Barrett and Bauer, who is in a hitting slump, popped to short.

Portsmouth's last two runs came in the eighth. Dills died on a hard smut to Devereaux, who was lucky to knock it down. Bauer walked. Fisher singled and they both scored on McHenry's hit to left, but Mack was muffed trying for second. Dills was thrown out by Bauer. And the Spencer men were through for the day.

In the fourth after McHenry flied to left and Beers to Fisher, Jacobus made the fatal mistake of walking. Thomas, White scored him with a double and White scored when Dill muffed Guy's fly. Barrett fanned. Lexington scored two more in the sixth when McHenry, Beers, Thomas, White and Guyan flied safely. Jacobus being treated rudely by this quartet of oval balls.

Each cracked a double to left in the ninth after Deane flied to center and Thomas to right, but Jacobus went on.

SCOUT SEES GAMES

It is a little early for scouts, but nevertheless as he did not let his presence be known and witnessed the double bill known until after the game when he had a short talk with President Guyan. You know scouts are not given to quarreling, that is regular scouts, and much impressed with McHenry's work in the field yesterday was of this opinion.

Portsmouth's first run in the opening inning. Dills was drawn out by McHenry and Deane was easy for Hanna and Devereaux. White played up Fisher's rip and tossed him to Devereaux. Fisher taking second from where he scored a moment later on McHenry's hit. Dills fanned to left.

The champs scored their first three runs in the third inning and immediately drove Hanna to the shoat. Dills started the inning with a one base poke to center. Bauer sacrificed. Fisher was thrown out by White, but McHenry and Dillhofer lined and stole second on Dillhofer's lead throw and stole third on Dillhofer's lead throw. Dills scoring on McHenry's hit and the latter on Dillhofer's hit.

When Deane went to Deane was the only player to get a hit for Portsmouth in the last six innings. Good night! The score:

SCOUT SEES GAMES

It is a little early for scouts, but nevertheless as he did not let his presence be known and witnessed the double bill known until after the game when he had a short talk with President Guyan. You know scouts are not given to quarreling, that is regular scouts, and much impressed with McHenry's work in the field yesterday was of this opinion.

Portsmouth's first run in the opening inning. Dills was drawn out by McHenry and Deane was easy for Hanna and Devereaux. White played up Fisher's rip and tossed him to Devereaux. Fisher taking second from where he scored a moment later on McHenry's hit. Dills fanned to left.

The champs scored their first three runs in the third inning and immediately drove Hanna to the shoat. Dills started the inning with a one base poke to center. Bauer sacrificed. Fisher was thrown out by White, but McHenry and Dillhofer lined and stole second on Dillhofer's lead throw and stole third on Dillhofer's lead throw. Dills scoring on McHenry's hit and the latter on Dillhofer's hit.

When Deane went to Deane was the only player to get a hit for Portsmouth in the last six innings. Good night! The score:

OUR INDIAN FRIENDS

(Dayton Daily News)

The Colony Courier, of Oklahoma, contains an unusually interesting local column this week. Our Indian friends have "made news" for the editor in "considerable quantity." And the editor, good Indian that he is, prints the items in language plain and to the point, as Indians speak. Here are a few "happenings" which we consider of sufficient importance to reproduce even at this distance from Oklahoma:

"Little Bird and Hannah Little Bird are taking care of Ella Little Bird's house while she is in hospital at El Reno. Ella was operated on at El Reno and is doing well."

"Swift Wolf and James Monroe are back together at Swift Wolf house in Colony while Mrs. Swift Wolf is off visiting friends and relatives near Calumet. Swift Wolf buys the grub and does the cooking. James Monroe cuts wood, brings water and washes the dishes."

"Richiea Charcoal has bought sewing machine from Colony Mercantile Co. Richiea has white girl that is going to keep house for her and is also going to sew for her."

"Thunder Bull has employed Hot Tamala Man Mexican to farm for him this year at his place."

"Apache Medicine Men and Medicine Women are in camp at two babies to make their annual medicines out of different kinds of roots. They make their medicines once year this is old custom of Apaches."

"Creeping Bear and Bald Head are now living on Washita on Creeping Bear's allotment. The grubs is good and they are grazing deer Mexican mules. One of their mules is bad mule. Creeping Bear has named it Villa after the bandit."

"Prairie Chief and his wife White Buffalo Woman have been visiting his son-in-law, Frank Hamilton and family for few days and have gone over to visit Perry Reynolds and his family on Bear Creek."

"Mountain One Woman, an I. Lucile Mountain have been out on Washita River visiting friends and relatives have returned to Colony to their home."

"Maggie Woman Wolf Chief has bought $5.00 worth of seed for Watan. Watan is going to make big garden at his home place east of Colony, this will be company garden as Maggie Woman is finishing the seed and Watan the ground."

"Bear Bow and Black Eagle are going to put in garden together at Julia Lizard's place, this will be company garden also."

"Red Bird Wolf and his wife Maggie Woman have selected place on Maggie Woman's allotment to build their six room house and big barn, on Washita River near Big Lake Crossing. They are going to employ Lost Leg and Snells Lake Bear, northern Cheyennes from Tongue River agency Montana to work for them while they are here visiting. Red Bird can not do any work himself as he is nearly blind. He wants to help these two northern Cheyennes in money matters so they will have money to go back home with."

Our hoodie does not measure up to our brag. After all the talk about how we have kept Belgium from starvation it turns out that we have contributed only $15,000,000 of the $122,000,000 that the world at large has given to her relief. Still that, little as it is, considering our wealth, is a good deal better than nothing.

The New Hampshire Portsmouth Times says Hughes carried Vermont in the Republican primaries to the surprise of all, but it wouldn't be surprising for him to carry the state in November, if he were nominated. This may sound heretical as a statement from a Democratic paper, which the New Hampshire Times is, but consider it and you will find it merely a joke. Vermont is the Republican Mississippi.

Mexico is negotiating an enormous loan with the United States, or rather, from United States capitalists. Surest sign of peace and that she has got to be good.

As ye sow so shall ye reap doesn't always hold good. Especially if you live next door to a neighbor who keeps a flock of chickens with a roving disposition, and who ever heard of any other kind?

Rather remarkable how exactly accurate the weather forecasts are. Saturday the forecast was for cooler weather for the first of the week, with rain Monday and Tuesday, and a rising temperature on the latter, with clear skies and warmer following. That is it could not have been more accurate had the weather been depressed afterwards instead of before.

The amiable Mr. Taft has, as yet, expressed no preference for anyone among the many Republican presidential candidates. She, however, a certain announcement of Monday, we have a hope, rather, an expectation, that his placidity will be ruffled enough for him to indicate there is one individual he would not approve of for nomination.

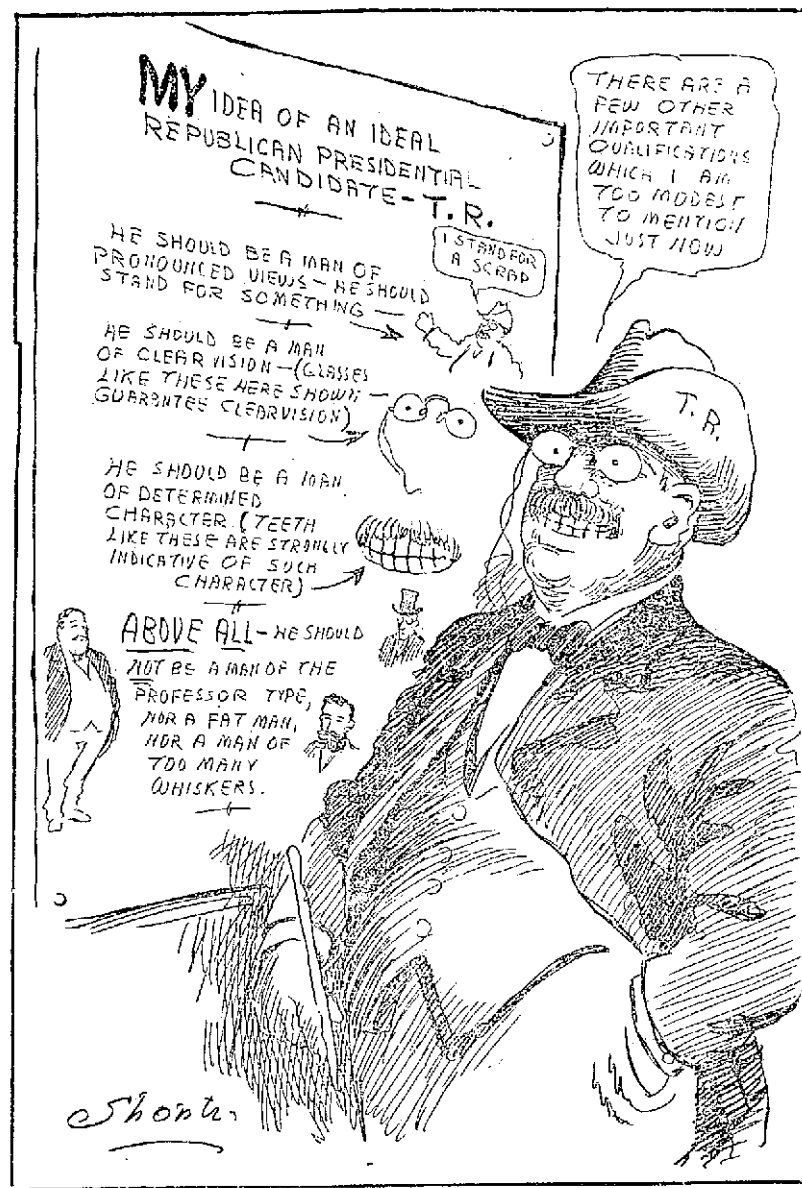

It is the boast of the Huntington Advertiser that a West Virginia convention is never too proud to fight.

England's war now lacks but the mere bagatelle of a hundred million or being twelve billion dollars and she announces she hasn't got a good start in the fight.

We do not know that the country is sleeping any sounder since the Silver army bill was passed, but the press is not raising so many dreadful alarms.

As yet none seem to be willing to try to take away from the champion ship left as the long distance runner.

NO MISTAKE ABOUT IT--TEDDY KNOWS THE VERY MAN

THE HIGHEST AUTHORITY

Manager John McGraw, of the New York team, is acknowledged the master mind of base ball, and what he says on that particular subject may be accounted as the highest authority. It is, therefore, impressive, that when asked what he thought would conduce most to the popularity and permanency of the sport, his reply was clear and simple accounts of the plays without any use of slang and striving after effect in the use of odd terms and expressions. It is likely most attendants at the games will agree with him. Accounts of base ball games have degenerated largely into linguistic buffoonery. Writers play too much to each other and the "tin-horn sports". Their descriptions are a jumble of jargon, a perversion of words, a crude striving after effect and a jumbling of metaphors that are generally grotesque and often little short of idiotic. Certainly, they add nothing to its dignity and how it is thought its interest or popularity can be increased thereby goes beyond ordinary understanding. It is to the prime credit of base ball that ever since its introduction it has been the cleanest of pastimes and undoubtedly occupies the most honorable place today in all public diversions. So it will be more than doubly unfortunate if it should be killed by the absurd treatment of those whose particular business it is to foster and make it stronger.

A contemporary warns its readers not to put paper money in their mouths. Certainly not, put it in the pocket book, or in circulation, and yet better, in a savings account, a medium of it at least.

A local firm has a plan to belt the river front with a boulevard, instead of a flood wall, as we have come to think of high water protection. May appear something of an idealism, but an interurban service is an accomplished fact.

Blessed is he who sees three blessings where only two are supposed to be. An exchange observes the rains not only laid the dust and caused vegetation to grow, but it enables the seeing of more double-headed, basally speaking.

Those Mexicans must have a sight more craft than they are given credit for. "Our boys" that are scouting after the Villistas complain whenever they approach the groundless hide their guns and become mere "ornery" peons.

A thing is hardly ever so bad as it is said to be. We don't hear any more of the jitney putting the street railway out of business.

Indeed, war's horrors are far-reaching and there is no monk, corner or crevice of the world that escapes such a conflict as is now on. For three mortal hours this afternoon the man and the organ on the street have been grinding steadily and relentlessly on "It's A Long Way To Tippecary." and every brilliant paragraph we include has a tendency to slide off into "It's a long way to the sweetest girl I know." For believe us turning him out is some grind.

Another critic has come over across the pond and sailing back left behind the word that the fault of the American press is that it deals in facts and not in ideals. Thanks for the compliment. We have long striven to earn and get it.

We shudder to think how horrible will become our naked and unprotected estate if Teddy should get that nomination.

We would never expect the Bull Moose angel, George W. Perkins, to pay Wilson the compliment, yet he says "a vast deal depends on the experience, tact, wisdom, and strength of the executive."

In considering that reward of fifty thousand for Villa bear in mind that the highest price is placed on his capture.

Nowhere have we seen a rash to get into the first ranks of that signer army.

Senatorial courtesy usually resolves itself into discourtesy to the president. Philadelphia Ledger.

Mr. Garden Toad Solves The Mystery

Mr. I. said, "Mr. Garden Toad," before he had time to finish, Mr. Garden Toad began to laugh. Such a creaking jolly little laugh you never heard! He laughed and he creaked, he creaked and he laughed till Billy began to be afraid he would really burst.

"Ask me something," exclaimed Mr. Garden Toad. "You surprise me, Billy. I have been so quiet this morning I thought you must have found a good eating place somewhere else. What did you want to ask me?"

"I want to know about something in the front yard," replied Billy. "Can't you come around there and look at something I want to explain?"

"Why, he's cracked the rock, much as Billy's request. 'You are a funny Billy. Do you want me to hop entirely around the house just to see something for you?'"

"Well," said Billy (and to tell the truth he was rather abashed when Mr. Garden Toad put his request that way), "that's what I wanted. But of course--"

"Why, Billy, it's a long way around to the front yard--for me! To have to hop past the kitchen, and past the dining-room and past the chimney--place and past the--"

"Of course it's a long way," interrupted Billy. "I don't so need to fly. And hopping is slow business. I've noticed that. But I did want to ask you about something."

"Suppose you ask me anyway," suggested Mr. Garden Toad. "Suppose you describe to me what you have seen. Maybe I can tell you about it quite as well as if I had seen the sight myself. Try and see, try and see, and see."

Billy thought that was a fine idea--much better than to wait while Mr. Garden Toad laboriously hopped around to the distant front yard. So he perched on a low bush close by where Mr. Garden Toad was and he told him all about the funny ridges and hills in the front yard; and about the dirt pile that grew as it by magic.

NEW YORK DAY-BY-DAY

New York, May 24--The markets are opening in Hester street, on the lower East Side, Hester street is the only remaining touch of the old life of the slums. Marble apartment houses with elevators are wiping out the roiling tenement hovels.

But Hester street, where every one has something to sell, remains. Double rows of pushcarts and moving curiosity shops line the curbs from one end to the other. From these carts the shopper may select furs, notions, ribbons and lace, clothing, hardware, shoes and ready-made dresses. Anything the Ghetto desires is on display.

The other day, however, one of the old-time institutions was destroyed with the abolishment of the horsecars that ran on Avenue C. A new merchant is displaying baked sweet potatoes from the oven of a sheet iron stove on wheels. One pushcart man sells rich, low-cost and pickles--a fine gastronomic mixture. Another cart is filled with raisins.

Appliances in candy may be purchased for one cent apiece, and a man with rings of rusty keys, for sale, has made a living there for years. He also carried a side line of wax candles and matches which make the Great White Way of Hester street.

Even the police reporters are reporting to you here as if the reading public did not have enough and nobody things to digest. The first reason to penetrate the very fibre story was Charles L. Egan, who is Probably it would be impossible to concentrate more grudging in a given space than comes rippling to the surface when four or five girls get around a weighing machine, mount it in turn and exclaim over how unexpectedly little or how surprisingly much each weighs. New York State Journal.

At a banquet the other night at the Biltmore, Edward Henry Cuff observed that he saw nothing remarkable in the fact that an Indiana bachelor's club, organized not long ago, with a great flourish of trumpets and vaudeville revivals of eternal ecstasy, has been broken up because of depletion in the ranks due to matrimony. It is merely additional verification, he says, of the saying: "It pays to advertise."

This is a cruel job, says a New York paragrapher: "Maybe the dove of peace party would support bushes out of respect for his beautiful faint whisks."

The Glad To See You Man

The glad to see you treatment is great for human ills. It's better than prescriptions. And multitudes of pills.

Tomorrow Jones may grumble And look downcast and blue. The glad to see you manner Will make him smile at you. Brown may be all despairing. Resolved to quit the fight. Your smile and "Glad to see you!" May cheer and set him right; Or some one, sad and hopeless. May seek the way to crime. Your glad to see you greeting May stop him, just in time. So if through life you carry This cheerful phrase with you, It's ten to one the angels Will be glad to see you, too!

CASEMENT IS INDICTED FOR HIGH TREASON

London, May 25.—The grand jury today returned true bills against Sir Roger Casement, leader of the Sinn Féin revolt, and Daniel J. Bayley, the former British soldier, who is held as his accomplice.

The action of the grand jury follows the preliminary hearing before a police magistrate, at which Casement and Bayley withheld their defense and were held without bail pending the grand jury deliberations.

Seventy-five grand jurors were summoned before Chief Justice Reading today and from their number twenty-three were selected to decide whether indictments for high treason should be returned against the two prisoners. Their decision was reported promptly.

In explaining the law to the jury the judge stated it was necessary that treason should be proved by overt acts. In the indictment against Casement as it stood, he said, six overt acts were mentioned. The court nominated Alexander Sullivan of Dublin and Arthur James, who appeared for the defense at the preliminary hearing, as counsel for Casement.

The judge fixed the trial of Sir Roger for June 6.

NEGROES BOARD CAR AND ROB KENTUCKY FARMER

Three negroes boarded a Norfolk and Western freight car near Kenova, W. Va., early Thursday morning and held up Reclus Childress, Jenkins, Ky., who was accompanying his live stock to Columbus, and robbed him of $26 in cash and a gold watch valued at $15. After they had taken the watch and money, the negroes jumped from the train and made their escape. When the freight arrived in Portsmouth, Mr. Childress went to the yard office and told B. S. Fugitt of the robbery and Detectives Andy Leble and Bob Reno were called. Mr. Childress said he was moving his household goods and live stock to Columbus from his old home at Jenkins, Ky., and was accompanying the car to care for his stock. A little after midnight three negroes entered the car and demanded his money. They threatened him with a pistol and then took his gold watch, a bill of lading, which they believed to be a valuable paper, and $26 in currency.

After looking around for a few moments, the trio jumped from the train and made their escape. Mr. Childress arrived in the East Portsmouth yard at four o'clock and left for Columbus at six o'clock.

Harry Keenan and Bessie Barriscale in "The Last Act," Triangle-Kay See Drama.

Columbia Today

A play within a play is the dramatic medium through which Thomas H. Ince helps to develop logically the plot upon which he has built his newest Triangle play, "The Last Act," in which Bessie Barriscale is starred.

Miss Barriscale is an actress who obtains a good part when she needs it most and thereby gains great success and attendant social recognition. Into her life comes a prosperous lawyer, whose wife neglects him for her charities. It is by reproducing part of the play in which his star appears that Ince reveals to her the folly and consequences of permitting a continuation of her relations with the lawyer.

Her faithful maid knows them and warns the wife of the lawyer. The latter comes to see the actress, who recognizes her as a woman who had previously befriended her. She is moved to give up her admirer in a spirit of sacrifice, but hesitates until through her mind passes the great climax of her play. She sees what happens to the triangle in that make-believe world and hesitates no longer. She even goes so far as to show the wife how easy it is to regain her husband's love; less time given to outside charities and more to making a happy home and congenial companion for her husband.

STEEL COMPANY WANTS TO BUY LAND FROM THE CITY

The Whitaker-Glesner company has opened negotiations with the city for the purchase of the present unused new city water works ground, directly east of Idlewild.

The company officials have asked the city to name a price upon the tract, which is about 400 ft. wide and 450 ft. long, located between the filtration plant on Gallia pike and the pumping station near the river bank, and while the company would rather buy the land outright, has signified a willingness to lease it for a long period of years.

The board of control has had the matter under consideration at two meetings and is busy investigating with a view to presenting some tangible report upon the same to city council at its next meeting Wednesday, June 7. The main question is whether there is any ground of the city ever needed for waterworks purposes. Mayor H. H. Kaps personally believes in assisting the company as he believes in assisting the city, for it always means the benefit of the city. The ground will fit in nicely with the plans acquired by the company for its proposed big improvement.

No Action Is Taken By State Board On Hilltop Sewer Plans

Disappointment expressed by officials around the city building Wednesday will probably be shared by the thousand or more Hill Top property owners contemplating sanitary sewer connections over word received from James E. Bauman, secretary of the state board of health, that no action has as yet been taken on the proposed new sanitary sewer system for that section.

The board failed to have a quorum on its meeting day, May 17, and the report on City Engineer Samuel Harper's plans submitted May 7 made by the department of sanitary engineering will not be passed upon until the next meeting which will be June 12.

The sanitary engineering department recommended approval of the Portsmouth engineer's plans on the following conditions:

1. That an ordinance be passed satisfactory to the secretary of the board, defining the possible use of sanitary, combination and storm water sewerage, providing for the issuance of permits for sewer connections, inspection and recording thereof and providing for a proper official to superintend the work.

2. That sewerage for the entire city be treated in a manner satisfactory to the state board when it is deemed necessary by the board.

3. That this approval shall be void unless contracts for installation of additional sewers shall have been awarded prior to Jan. 1, 1917.

While the report of the department is not hiding the secretary writes that its recommendations will probably be adopted but if it is necessary to proceed with the awarding of contracts for sewers the department will have no objection to such, provided it is done at the city's risk. It is suggested that a clause be inserted in contracts making them subject to the approval of the state board.

Baker Is Fined Despite "Constitutional Rights;" Had Abused Justices

Okey Baker claimed to be asserting his constitutional right as a citizen when he denounced local justices of the peace for not giving him any law against Joe Steagall and that the police violated said constitution when they arrested him Wednesday evening.

Baker had called up police headquarters and complained that his landlord, Mr. Steagall, had removed the front door of his home from its hinges in an effort to get rid of him as a tenant. Okey occupied a small shack near Broadway, between Fifth and Sixth streets. When he protested to Steagall that gentleman advised him to carry his troubles to some magistrate. The police refused to entertain his complaint because his incoherent talking over the telephone plainly indicated he was under the influence of liquor.

Baker pleaded guilty in police court, Thursday, to drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was fined $10 and warned that if he would have to pay it in addition to a previously imposed and unpaid fine of $5.

Within a short time a call came from "Squire John W. Byron" that Baker was abusing him. Squire John Smith rounded the corner of Sixth and Washington streets, in time to see Baker on the sidewalk in front of the squire's office, wildly gesticulating. Baker, as he caught sight of the approaching officer, "took a his heels", disappearing down Court street. Smith continued a vigorous search for him and reported his steps to Sixth street, just in time to see Squire A. J. Finney ejecting Baker from his home.
